

Commercial Litigation Associate - Maslon LLP has an opportunity for an associate to join a commercial law firm with a solid client base and a truly collegial atmosphere. Maslon is the rare firm where you can take on challenging, sophisticated work while developing both personally and professionally.

We are currently seeking a lateral associate with 4-5 years of commercial litigation experience in product liability defense work, preferred candidates have medical device or pharmaceutical experience as well. Candidates must have strong relevant experience and superior academic performance, be highly motivated and mature, and have excellent communication skills.

Maslon is a law firm with depth of experience and expertise in the many areas of commercial litigation and transactions. What sets Maslon apart is the quality of our relationships—with our clients and with each other. We are large enough to handle the most challenging legal matters, allowing us to sustain a diverse and sophisticated practice, yet we are small enough to recognize and respect the individuality of our clients, lawyers, and staff. At Maslon, we emphasize excellence in the practice of law while maintaining our values of informality, diversity, and friendship. Our recruitment objective is to hire well-rounded individuals who share these values.

If you are motivated, creative, hungry for hands-on experience, and if you can work both independently and as a part of a team, striving to be the best, please send your resume, transcript, writing sample and cover letter to: Astrid M. Eglitis, Director of Recruiting & Professional Development at astrid.eglitis@maslon.com. No agency resume submissions please. Maslon is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
