

Health Associate (#429)

Dorsey & Whitney LLP's Health group is seeking a highly motivated health law associate with two to four years of experience for its Minneapolis office. The position will focus on transactions and regulatory compliance work (e.g., analyzing and drafting contracts, researching state and federal licensure requirements, and advising on Medicare and Medicaid compliance) for clients in the health industry.

Successful candidates will have two to four years of health law experience, superior academic credentials, and very strong communication, organization, writing, research and analytical skills. A background in the health industry and Minnesota bar admission is preferred. The candidate must have a strong knowledge base in the business and regulatory aspects of health law, including Stark, Anti-Kickback, licensing and tax-exemption laws, and strong drafting skills.

Dorsey values the strength that comes from a diverse and inclusive work environment. It contributes to the success of our people and our clients and enriches our experience. We believe that everyone should feel at home and part of our community.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, ancestry, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, affectional preference, disability, age, marital status, familial status, status with regard to public assistance, military or veteran status, or any other legally-protected status.
