

IP Litigation Associate (#403)

Dorsey is seeking an experienced Intellectual Property Litigation Associate to join our Minneapolis office. This associate will join a team of dedicated associates and partners in Dorsey's growing IP Litigation Practice Group. In this role you will have the opportunity to work on complex patent, trademark, and other IP litigation matters in federal courts around the United States.

The following qualifications are required:

- A JD degree from an ABA-accredited law school or the ability to be admitted to the Minnesota bar;
- Three to five years of IP litigation attorney experience;
- Strong communication and writing skills; and
- Top academic credentials.

Dorsey offers opportunities for advancement within a collaborative and dynamic environment, competitive salary, and excellent benefits. We support and encourage the professional development and advancement of our lawyers through numerous CLE programs offered by Dorsey U, our internal professional development service. In your first year at Dorsey, you will be invited to attend two New Lawyer Training sessions specifically designed to teach you about our firm as well as our Trial Practice Group.

Dorsey values the strength that comes from a diverse and inclusive work environment. It contributes to the success of our people and our clients and enriches our experience. We believe that everyone should feel at home and part of our community.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, ancestry, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, affectional preference, disability, age, marital status, familial status, status with regard to public assistance, military or veteran status, or any other legally-protected status.
