

Tax Associate (#399)

Dorsey seeks an experienced tax associate to join the Tax, Trusts & Estates group in our Minneapolis office. This associate will work initially on a range of transactional tax and federal, state, and tribal tax controversy matters, with opportunities to become more specialized as the associate's career progresses. Transactional work will include advising on structuring and forming business and investment entities and advising on tax issues in mergers, acquisitions, reorganizations, restructurings, and securities offerings. Tax controversy work will include federal and state tax controversies relating to individual and corporate income, sales and use, and other types of tax at various procedural levels, including the examination phase, administrative appeals, litigation and collection actions.

Dorsey offers opportunities for advancement within a collaborative and dynamic environment, competitive salary, and excellent benefits. We support and encourage the professional development and advancement of our lawyers through numerous CLE programs offered by Dorsey U, our internal professional development service.

The following qualifications are required:

- JD degree from an ABA-accredited law school
- 3 to 6 years of experience as a tax attorney, with experience in either transactional or controversy tax matters
- Strong academic performance
- Excellent research and writing skills

Dorsey values the strength that comes from a diverse and inclusive work environment. It contributes to the success of our people and our clients and enriches our experience. We believe that everyone should feel at home and part of our community.
