

Employment Law Associate

Maslon LLP is seeking an associate with four to five years of practice-related experience to join our busy Labor & Employment Law Group. Our lawyers represent employers in virtually all aspects of their employee and labor relations. Candidates must have:

- a minimum of four years of providing employment law advice, counseling, and litigation;
- superior knowledge of the law;
- a strong commitment to client service;
- the ability to work efficiently to help our clients solve problems;
- communication and drafting skills that inspire the confidence of our clients; and
- a willingness to generate publications and speak in public to help our clients stay on top of workplace developments.

We offer the opportunity to join a group of colleagues in a commercial law firm with a solid client base and truly collegial atmosphere. Maslon is the rare firm where you can take on challenging, sophisticated work while developing both personally and professionally.

Maslon is known for its depth of experience and expertise in the many areas of commercial litigation and transactions. What sets Maslon apart has much to do with the quality of our relationships, with our clients, and with each other. We are large enough to handle the most challenging legal matters, allowing us to sustain a diverse sophisticated practice, yet we are small enough to recognize and respect the individuality of our clients, lawyers, and staff. At Maslon, we emphasize excellence in the practice of law, while maintaining our cherished values of informality, diversity, and friendship.

Please send your resume and cover letter to: Astrid M. Eglitis, Director of Recruiting & Professional Development at astrid.eglitis@maslon.com. If you'd like to know more about the partners who direct the work of our Labor & Employment Practice Group, go to the profiles of Jessica Pecoraro and Jeremy Sosna. No agency resume submissions please. Maslon is an Equal Opportunity Employer.