The Minnesota Minority Recruitment Conference (MMRC) is an annual event that connects the legal employers in the Minneapolis/St. Paul metropolitan area with top rising 2L and 3L candidates from around the country. Each year's conference and job fair includes around 25 employers and upwards of 100 law students. Employers participating in the interviews may include small, medium and large firms; corporate law departments; and public interest, nonprofit and government entities.

Twin Cities Diversity in Practice is a nonprofit association comprised of the leading Twin-Cities legal employers with a single mission: to attract, recruit, advance, and retain attorneys of color in and to the Twin Cities legal community. Our organization is dedicated in taking a leadership role in advancing diversity. We turn good intentions into action through the active participation of all our members, a full-time Executive Director and a dedicated support staff. We are not about theory. We're about putting diversity into practice and promoting the Twin Cities of Minneapolis/St. Paul as a great place for attorneys of color to develop professionally and personally.

Our organization's work is multi-faceted and committed to bringing our message to the public through timely, innovative programming, progressive initiatives and open lines of communication. We hope you will take the time to get to know us.
