Twin Cities Diversity in Practice (TCDIP) is a collaboration of law firms and corporate law departments seeking to enhance the diversity of the legal profession. Stinson LLP and U.S. Bank are proud to be members of Twin Cities Diversity in Practice and to partner to host a 1L Summer Clerk. First-year law students have a unique summer clerkship opportunity that combines a traditional law firm clerkship with experience working at an in-house corporate law department. For more information about this program, please visit the TCDIP 1L Clerkship page. For more information on Stinson’s Summer Program, visit https://www.stinson.com/careers-summer-associate-program.

Stinson and U.S. Bank are pleased to offer a TCDIP Clerkship position for a current 1L law student. Based in Minneapolis, MN, the Clerk will be an employee of Stinson and split the 10-week summer program between the firm and U.S. Bank’s legal department, with seven to eight weeks at Stinson and two to three weeks at U.S. Bank. The successful candidate will be offered meaningful opportunities to work on legal-related assignments and to learn about Stinson, U.S. Bank, and the Minneapolis legal community as a whole.

Qualifications:
- Open to all 1L students who attend an ABA accredited school
- Demonstrated commitment to advancing diversity, equity and inclusion
- Strong academic credentials
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Outstanding interpersonal skills
- Community involvement
- Work experience

Applications must include (PDF format preferred):
- An essay (under 500 words) about a personal experience relating to bias, and how you plan to support diversity, equity and inclusion in your future legal career
- Current resume
- Cover letter
- Undergraduate and graduate (if applicable) transcripts (unofficial versions are acceptable)
- Law school transcript (unofficial versions are acceptable). If an applicant’s law school transcript is unavailable at the time of application, the applicant may instead provide the anticipated date for receipt of grades and supplement with the transcript once available. Please send supplemental law school transcript to recruiting@stinson.com
- Legal writing sample

Application deadline: January 12th, 2024.
